Report on United States-India Educational Foundation (USIEF) Talk on “Studying in the U.S.”

On 25th August, a seminar on “Studying in the U.S” was hosted by the Career Guidance and Placement Cell in collaboration with the United States-India Educational Foundation aiming towards providing valuable insights and guidance to students aspiring to pursue higher education in the United States. The event brought together students to share knowledge and resources essential for a successful academic journey abroad. The highlight of the seminar was the presence of Itihaas Singh, an EducationUSA Advisor at the United States-India Educational Foundation (USIEF) in Kolkata. The Seminar was also graced by the presence of Father Donatus Khujur, the Principal of St. Joseph’s College, which shows the college administration's commitment in fostering the pursuit of higher education in the United States among the students.

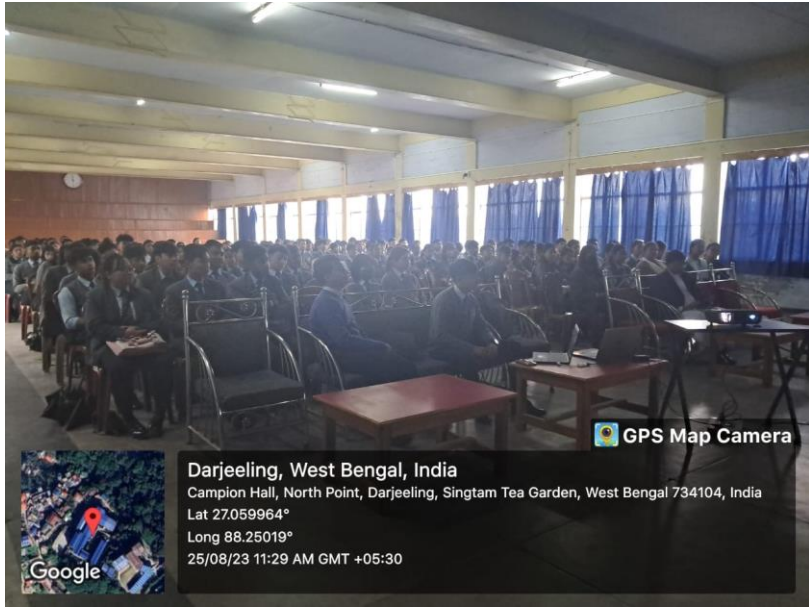

Key Points Discussed

Topics covered- Mr. Singh, an alumnus of a U.S. university and possesses significant work experience in the United States, shared valuable insights and guidance based on both professional expertise and personal experiences. EducationUSA, a well-respected authority on U.S. higher education, guided the students through the five crucial steps of the U.S. university application process. These steps encompassed researching educational opportunities, securing financing for U.S. studies, completing application procedures, obtaining a U.S. visa, and preparing for the journey abroad.

Students hailing from diverse academic backgrounds within St. Joseph's College enthusiastically attended the workshop, demonstrating their keen interest in pursuing higher education in the United States.

Conclusion:

The seminar on studying in the United States organised by St. Joseph's College and United States-India Educational Foundation (USIEF) proved to be a valuable resource for students seeing to pursue higher education abroad. By providing information and guidance, the event empowered the students to embark on their academic journey with confidence and enthusiasm.
